My name is Nkauj Iab Yang, and I grew up and am a renter in the city of Sacramento. I support Proposition 15 because it will provide funding for our public schools and increase access to local services including affordable housing programs. Our youth and families, especially the most vulnerable, deserve better access to quality education, housing, and other services. Proposition 15 would reclaim $12 billion every year for our schools and local services by closing corporate property tax loopholes -- all while protecting homeowners and renters, small businesses, and agriculture. The Board of Equalization has an important role to play in ensuring that Prop 15 is implemented effectively, and that it is fully enforced. The Board of Equalization must rise to the occasion of implementing a change that Californians like me have needed for a very long time. I urge you to support Prop. 15 — a fair and balanced reform to put our Schools & Communities First. Sincerely, Nkauj Iab Yang, Co-Director of HIP, Sacramento, California
