TO COUNTY ASSESSORS:

HOME PROTECTION COMPANIES' PERSONAL PROPERTY

We have recently been informed of Senate Bill 2222 (Chapter 1203, Statutes of 1978) as filed with the Secretary of State on September 26, 1978, which added home protection companies to the listing of insurance companies. As you know, insurance companies which pay a gross premiums tax are exempt, under Article XIII, Section 28, of the California Constitution, from ad valorem taxation on their personal property.

Effective January 1, 1979 the following home protection companies' personal property was exempt from property taxes:

American Building Control
