9	BOE-267	P1 Section 2b, 2c	California Assessors' Association	Delete: 2b and 2c from Section 2 and add: 2b and 2c to Section 1	Not accepted. The claimant may only be applying for personal property it owns at the location. Section 1(d) asks the claimant to identify what type of property it seeks exemption. Sections 2, 3, and 4 ask for details on the type of property.

13	BOE-267	Section 2	Exempt Organizations Committee Taxation Section of the State Bar of California (M. Clausen)	It is not clear on the face of the Form 267 that the claimant must submit a copy of the tax exempt status letter of each organizational “user.” In our experience, it is common for people filling out forms to focus on the face of the form and not read the instructions carefully, so stating this requirement clearly on the face of the form will likely reduce the number of incomplete claims submitted.	Accepted. The claimant must submit the tax exempt status letter for each operator with BOE-267-O. Staff has updated BOE-267-O to include a note which states that the claimant must attach each operator's tax exempt status letter, if not submitted previously. Also, staff proposes the following addition at end of the last sentence in section 2e, "a copy of the lease or agreement, and for organizations, its tax exempt status letter issued by the Internal Revenue Service or the FTB.

BOE-267-A differs from BOE-267 in that the assessor previously analyzed information received with BOE-267 on the use as transitional housing or emergency shelter and determined that specific use for housing was of a qualifying nature. Once a week or less users format could be designed similar to the Property Use Report used by some counties for organizations to report other persons or organizations using the property. (Copy of Property Use Report is also attached). It should also include whether outside user has a tax exempt status letter from either the IRS or Franchise Tax Board. Add a question on users of the portion of the property that the operator is using	Not accepted. BOE-267 requires claimant to provide details on all users of the property it owns, including frequency of use through submission of a list. BOE-267-O is only to report on operators that use the property more than once a week. Requested list of users is consistent with prior versions of forms BOE-267 and BOE-267-A. Previously, users more than once a week were instructed to file a separate claim as the operator, which was found by the court Jewish Community Center Development Corporation v. County of Los Angeles (2016)243Cal.App.4th 700(JCC) to not be supported by statute. More than once a week use requires certain tax exempt status: 501(c)(3) or 23701d. R&TC 214(a)(3)(D) indicates additional statuses for once a week or less use. Not accepted. The owner should have information on all uses of its property by all organizations using their property, even if an lessee organization allows another organization to use the property.

47	BOE-267-O Instructions	Exempt Organizations Committee Taxation Section of the State Bar of California (M. Clausen)	According to the instructions to the proposed forms, an organization other than the owner operating or using the property more than once a week triggers the Form 267-O filing. If an organization uses the property once a week or less, the claimant must attach a description of that portion of the property, its use, the amount received by the claimant (if any), a copy of the lease or agreement, and a copy of the organization's tax exempt status letter. Thus, the proposed forms require the same information whether or not the claimant is required to complete Form 267-O. It is not clear to the Committee why the forms treat the two sets of users (more- than-weekly users and weekly-or-less users), particularly since the same information and materials must be submitted to the Assessor for all users.	The frequency of use dictates which tax exempt statuses are acceptable for the welfare exemption. R&TC 214(a)(3)(D) permits certain users that are not more than once a week, and expands the tax exempt status that these user organizations can have which will not adversely affect the property's qualification for exemption. BOE-267-O is designed to be used for more than once a week operators and, therefore, only states the tax exempt statuses which are allowed for that frequency of use. To indicate additional tax exempt statuses or a person user which is not an organization implies such use by such organization as qualifying, which is misleading. See also staff response to item #12.
48	BOE-267-O	P1	California Assessors' Association	Add place to collect OCC number for each organization using the property	Not accepted. Requesting an OCC number suggests that the operator must have an OCC, which is contrary to the court's holding in JCC.

52	BOE-267-O	Section 2	Exempt Organizations Committee Taxation Section of the State Bar of California (M. Clausen)	It is not clear on the face of Form 267-O that the claimant must submit a copy of the tax exempt status letter of each operator. In our experience, it is common for lay people filling out forms to focus on the face of the form and not read the instructions carefully. The Committee believes that stating this requirement clearly on the face of the form will reduce the number of incomplete claims submitted to Assessors. More generally, the Committee feels that County Assessors are not in the best position to determine whether an organization qualifies for exemption. The proposed forms appear to expect an Assessor to make that determination with respect to operators based solely on whether the operator has a determination letter from the IRS or FTB. This process risks being both over- and under-inclusive of the requirements for welfare exemption. On the one hand, there may be organizations that can produce an IRS determination letter, perhaps having filed the new IRS Form 1023-EZ, that nevertheless may not qualify for exemption at all. On the other hand, there may be organizations using property as part of an owner's exempt activity -- members of the charitable class or others served by the charitable program, for example -- which do not have determination letters. In these cases, if the property is being used exclusively for the owner's exempt purposes, it may qualify for the welfare exemption despite the user's lack of determination letter.	Accepted. See staff response to item #51. BOE comment to operators: As a result of the court's holdings in JCC, the Assessor must determine whether an operator of a property for which exemption is sought is organized and operated for an exempt purpose without the benefit of the operator filing a claim for exemption or holding an OCC. We have interpreted this to mean that the Assessor must now verify the tax exempt status of the operator (which is not dissimilar to verifying whether the operator holds an OCC), in addition to evaluating whether the operator's use of the property qualifies for the welfare exemption is the responsibility already assigned to the assessor prior to JCC.

6	Exempt Organizations Committee Taxation Section of the State Bar of California (M. Clausen)	The Exempt Organizations Committee of the Taxation Section of the State Bar of California (the "Committee") is pleased to submit the following comments to the State Board of Equalization (the "Board") in response to the proposed forms and instructions in Letter to Assessors 2016/028. Matthew Clausen, Michele Berger, and Jorge Lopez drafted these comments. These comments do not necessarily reflect the position of the State Bar of California. Although the contributors to these comments have clients that could be affected by the principles addressed by these comments, no contributor or firm or organization to which any contributor belongs has been engaged by a client to make a government submission with respect to, or otherwise to influence the development or outcome of, the specific subject matter of these comments. The Committee appreciates the time and effort the Board has taken to develop the proposed forms, and welcomes the opportunity to comment on them. In the Committee’s experience, charitable organizations spend too much of their resources each year applying for and maintaining the welfare exemption for property that clearly qualifies. The statutes and rules applicable to the exemption, and especially around the application process, are complex and difficult for exempt organizations -- many of which are run by volunteers and overworked staff -- to understand. These organizations often resort to paying counsel to complete the forms, or to correct errors after volunteers and paid staff have attempted to file on their own. There is a real opportunity to make this process simpler and less costly for charitable organizations, and thus allow these organizations to use more of their resources providing charitable benefits rather than spending them on professional fees. The proposed changes to the forms are a good initial effort to address the holding of the Jewish Community Centers Development Corporation case. That case held that the lessee or other “operator” of property owned by a charitable organization has no taxable interest in the property, and therefore no need for an exemption from property tax. The proposed changes eliminate any requirement that a non-owner operator apply to the Board for an Organizational Clearance Certificate or file welfare exemption claims with the County Assessor. As we describe below, we believe there are a few points where the proposed forms and instructions could be clearer and simpler for the claimant.	Thank you for your submission.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CLAIM FOR WELFARE EXEMPTION (FIRST FILING)

EXEMPTION FROM PROPERTY TAXES UNDER SECTIONS 4(b) AND 5 OF ARTICLE XIII OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA AND SECTIONS 214, 254.5 AND 259.5 OF THE REVENUE AND TAXATION CODE

(See also sections 213.7, 214.01-214.1, 215.2, 221-222.5, 225.5, 231, 236, 254-254.6, 259.5, 261, and 270-272 of the Revenue and Taxation Code)

A claim for the Welfare Exemption must be filed with the Assessor by the organization owning the property or, in the case where the real property is leased from a public owner (any local, state, or federal government agency), by the lessee organization having a taxable possessory interest¹ in the real property. An officer or duly authorized representative of the organization filing the claim must sign the claim form. A separate claim form must be completed and filed for each property location for which exemption is being sought.

The organization filing the claim must provide information on all uses of the property, including information on use by other organizations. Each claim must contain supporting documents, including financial statements.

ORGANIZATIONAL CLEARANCE CERTIFICATE

An organization seeking the Welfare Exemption shall file with the State Board of Equalization (Board) a claim for an Organizational Clearance Certificate (OCC). The Board reviews each claim to determine whether the organization meets the requirements of section 214 and issues a certificate to claimants that meet these requirements. The Assessor may not approve a property tax exemption claim until the claimant has been issued a valid OCC. However, your organization may file a claim for exemption with the Assessor, even if the claimant has not yet received the certificate from the Board. If the claim is filed timely with the Assessor, the claim will be considered timely filed even if the claimant has not yet received the OCC from the Board.

To request an OCC, nonprofit organizations must file BOE-277 and limited liability companies must file BOE-277-LLC. These forms are available on the Board's website (www.boe.ca.gov) or by contacting the Exemptions Section at 1-916-274-3430.

RECORDATION REQUIREMENT

Revenue and Taxation Code section 261 requires that an organization claiming the Welfare Exemption for its real property must have recorded its ownership interest as of the lien date (12:01 a.m., January 1) in the recorder's office of the county in which the property is located.

A claimant which, on the lien date has a possessory interest in publicly owned land, owns water rights, or owns improvements on land owned by another may in lieu of recordation file a copy of the document giving rise to that possessory interest or water rights or file a written statement attesting to the separate ownership of those improvements with the Assessor. Failure to establish the fact of such recordation to the Assessor constitutes a waiver of the exemption.

TIME FOR FILING

To receive the full exemption, the claimant must file a claim each year on or before February 15. Only 90 percent of any tax or penalty or interest thereon may be canceled or refunded when a claim is filed between February 16 of the current year and January 1 of the following calendar year; if the application is filed thereafter, only 85 percent of any tax or penalty or interest thereon may be canceled or refunded.

The fiscal year for which exemption is being sought must be entered correctly. The proper fiscal year follows the lien date (12:01 a.m., January 1) as of which the taxable or exempt status of the property is determined. For example, a person filing a timely claim in February 2017 would enter “2017-2018”; a “2016-2017” entry on a claim filed in February 2017 would signify that a late claim was being filed for the preceding fiscal year.

If the real property owned by the claimant is operated by another organization more than once a week, submit BOE-267-O. If an organization uses the property once a week or less, you do not need to complete BOE-267-O, but you must provide a copy of each organization's tax exempt status letter (sections 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code or sections 23701d or 23701f of the California Revenue and Taxation Code).
